Scientists have developed an application that will offer smartphone users can go places where they are more likely to find people with similar interests.

The system – called Jyotish after the Sanskrit term for astrology – creates a map of popular movements following the wi-fi and Bluetooth on their phone within ten meters.

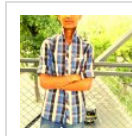

Eventually, the technology will be able to go further by matching user identities and social profiles to identify situations where they can meet a love or a potential client work, the Daily Mail.

The application is the result of Boeing researchers who developed a similar software to predict the movement of its teams in their plants had huge,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,
